Request for an Extreme Risk Protection Order

In this section, you will be providing information to the court to support the request for an extreme risk protection order. The information provided will help the court in deciding whether or not to grant your request.

7. I request the court issue an extreme risk protection order against the respondent to prohibit the respondent from purchasing or possessing a firearm and to require the respondent to surrender any concealed weapons license or any valid unused license to purchase a firearm. An extreme risk protection order is necessary because the respondent can reasonably be expected within the near future to intentionally or unintentionally seriously physically injure himself, herself, or another individual by possessing a firearm, and has engaged in an act or acts or made significant threats that are substantially supportive of the expectation. The detailed facts that support this statement are: (use additional sheets if necessary)

Ex Parte Order

In addition to requesting an order, you can ask the court to issue the order immediately, before the respondent gets notice about the petition or before any hearing. This is called an “ex parte” order. If an ex parte order is not requested, the court will not enter an order until after a hearing is held on the petition.

8. I am not requesting an ex parte order.

OR

I am requesting that the court issue an ex parte extreme risk protection order against the respondent. An ex parte order is necessary because: (check all that apply)

- immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result from the delay required to give notice.
- notice itself will precipitate adverse action before an extreme risk protection order can be issued.

The detailed facts that support this statement are: (use additional sheets if necessary)

Firearms

In this subsection, state whether you know or believe the respondent possesses firearms. Identify any firearms you know or believe the respondent owns or possesses, including any information that would assist a law enforcement officer in locating the firearms. Examples of firearms include, but are not limited to rifles, shotguns, pistols, and handguns. Use additional sheets if necessary. If you don't know a particular piece of information, leave the space blank.

9. The respondent does not own or possess firearms.

I am unsure whether the respondent owns or possesses firearms.

I know or believe that the respondent owns or possesses firearms. Information regarding the firearms is as follows:

Type of firearm	Manufacturer	Model	Caliber/gauge	Location (if known)

Provide any other information that would help a law enforcement officer to find the firearm(s).

10. Additional information: If you have any information about any of the following items, please provide it below. You may use additional pages if necessary. If the answer to any question is "yes," please provide a detailed explanation.

- a. Does the respondent have any history of use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force against another individual, or against themselves? Include information about any violence or threat of violence, regardless of whether a firearm was involved.

- b. Is there any evidence of the respondent having a serious mental illness or a serious emotional disturbance, as defined in MCL 330.1100d, that makes the respondent dangerous to other individuals or to themselves?

- c. Have any of the following orders ever been entered against the respondent: extreme risk protection order, personal protection order, restraining order, pretrial release order, probation or parole order, any other type of order intended to prevent the respondent from certain activity?

- d. Has the respondent ever violated an extreme risk protection order or personal protection order?

- e. Does the respondent have any prior criminal convictions or adjudications as either an adult or juvenile?

- f. Does the respondent have any criminal cases or petitions currently pending against them?

- g. Is there any evidence of recent unlawful use of controlled substances by the respondent?

- h. Is there any evidence of recent abuse of alcohol by the respondent?

- i. Has the respondent previously unlawfully possessed, used, displayed, or brandished a deadly weapon?

j. Is there any evidence that the respondent has obtained, or attempted to obtain a deadly weapon or ammunition within the past 180 days?

k. Is there any other reliable information the court should consider?

I declare under the penalties of perjury that this petition has been examined by me and that its contents are true to the best of my information, knowledge, and belief.
