Michigan's Must-Attend Family Law Event

Stay connected to the family law community with critical insights you won't find anywhere else. Hear straight from nine judges—including Hon. Janice K. Cunningham, who delivers another popular caselaw update. Gain perspectives from colleagues, court staff, and financial experts.

Get ahead of the curve on the new Michigan Parenting Time Guideline, which has been updated for the first time in 20 years. Refresh yourself on the rules of evidence. Take away the latest thinking on pandemic-related issues, from school choices to Zoom hearings to tax tips. Avoid mistakes when crafting a discovery plan.

Invaluable Insight from Michigan Judges

Nowhere else can you find this much candid advice straight from the bench. Hon. Janice K. Cunningham is back with her analysis of recent court decisions. Plus, an all-star judicial faculty provides answers to questions such as:

- How would a judge rule on a range of hypothetical alimony and child support cases?
- How would a judge rule on various evidentiary issues?
- What constitutes a successful Zoom hearing?
- What limits can a judge put on a legal marijuana user?
- What is truly confidential—and what is not?
- How can lessons they gained going from private practice to the bench help you?

Hon. Janice K. Cunningham

56th Circuit Court, Charlotte

“Incredibly informative.” “Brilliant.” “A highlight each year.” It goes without saying that Hon. Janice K. Cunningham is one of ICLE’s most popular speakers. Her experience speaks for itself: she was the first woman to take the circuit court bench in Eaton County after 25 years in private practice. She’s back to deliver another insightful, practical update session.

INTERACT WITH NINE JUDGES FROM ACROSS THE STATE

Hon. Melissa A. Cox
3rd Circuit Court

Hon. Jacob James Cunningham
6th Circuit Court

Hon. Joseph J. Farah
7th Circuit Court

Hon. Linda S. Hallmark

Hon. Jon A. Van Allsburg
20th Circuit Court

“From a judge’s perspective, this is the can’t-miss event of the year for family law practitioners.”

Hon. Kathleen M. McCarthy
3rd Circuit Court, Detroit

NEW! TWO OPTIONS THIS YEAR

Which format works best for you? Either way, you get the same great content.

IN PERSON

November 18-19, 2021

Suburban Collection Showplace, Novi

Enjoy the networking you've missed, with safety in mind. Visit www.icle.org/safeevents. Plus, access the electronic materials you've come to expect. Don't wait!

In-person registrations will be limited this year.

ON DEMAND

Available December 24, 2021

Stay connected to the family law community at your convenience. We bring the experts to you. Video recordings of all sessions, and other electronic materials, are available for three years.

Featured Speakers

J. Matthew Catchick, Jr.
Catchick Law PC, Southfield

Matt has 25+ years of experience and is founder and president of the firm. He joins a panel to discuss best practices for litigating trials and evidentiary hearings via Zoom.

Shalini Nangia
Varnum LLP, Ann Arbor

Shalini is a member of the firm's family law practice team and specializes in high-asset divorces, custody, and more. She shares strategies for avoiding parenting time battles.

COMPLETE COVERAGE OF THE HOTTEST ISSUES

Parenting Time

The Michigan Parenting Time Guideline was revised in February 2021—the first time in 20 years. Be sure you're up to speed. Hear straight from a longtime practitioner and FOC, and learn creative ways to form a schedule that is in the best interest of the child.

Evidence

A refresher on evidence is always welcome. Lawyers from both a large and small firm join a longtime judge to demonstrate everything from authentication to qualifying your expert. Watch the arguments and hear the judge's rulings—complete with color commentary throughout.

Support Income

When it comes to alimony or child support cases, what counts as income? A former family court judge and referee share their most candid feedback. In this unique presentation, watch two financial experts argue cases and see how the decision makers would rule. Learn what really drives their decisions.

Zoom Hearings and More

The pandemic seems to be easing, but is the virtual courtroom here to stay? Get advice from an experienced judge, lawyer, and FOC on conducting a successful Zoom hearing, including introducing contested exhibits. Plus, get tips on other pandemic-related issues like stimulus checks and schools.

Hulen R. Simpson

3rd Circuit Court, Detroit

Hulen has been a Friend of the Court referee since 2011 and ran a successful solo practice for many years. He gives advice “from the other side” so you can better serve clients.

James J. Harrington III

Harrington Law PLC, Novi

“The voice of experience.” With 40+ years in practice, Jim concentrates solely on complex family law cases. He shares best practices on the Verified Financial Information Form.

The Michigan Parenting Time Guideline has been revised and updated for the first time in 20 years. Learn how to use the new Guideline to your advantage in your practice. Explore the myriad of parenting time schedules and developmental considerations to help you fashion a unique parenting time schedule geared to the individualized needs of the children in your case. Be familiar with this universally accessible tool to be ahead of the curve.

Shelley A. Kester, Wilson Kester PLLC, Traverse City; Traci Lynn Schenkel, Kent County Friend of the Court, Grand Rapids

Core Concepts Track

QDRO Fundamentals

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 11:00am–11:50am)

Grasping the nuances of retirement plan division considerations ensures your client's interests are adequately protected in the parties' settlement agreement and subsequent QDRO. Learn to draft and issue appropriate discovery so you understand the retirement plan benefits to which your client is entitled. Understand the law regarding retirement benefits and leave with a fundamental knowledge of what retirement plan division aspects must be considered, negotiated, and documented.

Sharee Burkel, The QDRO Company LLC, Chelsea; Karen M. Ross, Ross Legal Group PC, Waterford

Using the Science of Settlement to Better Represent Your Clients

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 1:05pm–1:55pm)

Understanding the science of settlement is essential in successfully representing clients in negotiations. Recognize the impact that anchoring, attribution error, BATNA (best alternative to a negotiated agreement), biased punctuation of conflict, confirmation bias, ongoing relations, endowment effect, framing, and reactive evaluation have on negotiations. What is the effect of unconscious bias? Learn the importance of cognitive fluency, game theory, mimicry, sunshine, and touch in negotiations.

Lee Hornberger, Lee Hornberger Arbitration and Mediation Office, Traverse City

Effective and Efficient Discovery Plans

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 2:05pm–2:55pm)

Grasp the legal framework and gain practical ideas so that you strategically ask for the right information at the right time from the right person. Use discovery to your advantage and avoid overwhelming yourself and your client with information you do not need.

Elizabeth K. Bransdorfer, Mika Meyers PLC, Grand Rapids

Support Income: Experts Battle, Bench Weighs In

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 3:10pm–4:00pm)

When it comes to alimony or child support cases, what counts as income? Are you always left guessing what the judge or referee really cares about? See experts argue their cases live, followed by rulings from former family court judges and referees who share what matters most in their decision-making.

Benjamin I.S. Bershad, Stout Risius Ross LLC, Royal Oak; Jason Bodmer, Bodmer Price, Ann Arbor; Hon. Linda S. Hallmark, 6th Circuit Court, Pontiac; Kent L. Weichmann, Ann Arbor

Advocating for the Child and Remembering the Family in Family Law

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 4:10pm–5:00pm)

Discover strategies on how to avoid high-conflict parenting time battles and how to best use multi-professional collaborations in your cases. Explore pros and cons of using therapists, GALs, LGALs, and parenting coordinators.

Shalini Nangia, Varnum LLP, Ann Arbor; Carrie W. Rosenbloom, Carrie Rosenbloom LLC, Ann Arbor

Tracks

Intermediate/Advanced Track

Discovery and the Verified Financial Information Form: Best Practices

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 11:00am–11:50am)

Dive into the Verified Financial Information Form (VFIF) and take a targeted approach to discovery from day one. Explore strategies for integration of VFIF with formal discovery. Weigh the pros and cons of using interrogatories versus document production requests. Effectively define discrete subparts in your next set of interrogatories and satisfy the mandatory supplementing requirement. Start with the end in mind and be ready to use the VFIF and formal discovery at trial.

James J. Harrington III, Harrington Law PLC, Novi

Crimes and Misdemeanors

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 1:05pm–1:55pm)

Criminal acts often intertwine in family law matters. Some of those acts include tax fraud, illegal wiretapping, DUI, CSC, and domestic violence. Gain techniques for dealing with criminal accusations, handling witnesses, and working with investigators. Plus, know when to refer a matter to a criminal defense lawyer.

Steven A. Reed, Reed Law Group PC, Ann Arbor

Privacy 2021: You May Have to Think Twice with That Phone Recording

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 2:05pm–2:55pm)

Smartphone audio and video recordings couldn't be easier or more prevalent in society and many recordings are posted on social media. Up until now, Michigan was a one-party consent state, but the Michigan Supreme Court has taken up the issue. The eventual ruling will have broad implications for family law lawyers, criminal defense lawyers, and civil practitioners handling surreptitious recordings of their clients, witnesses, opposing parties, and more.

Michael C. Naughton, North Coast Legal PLC, Traverse City

College Planning for Divorcing Parents

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 3:10pm–4:00pm)

Applying to college is stressful, but for divorced families, admissions can be even more overwhelming. Grasp key challenges that families face as they navigate the college landscape while gaining practical advice on how lawyers can help their clients negotiate and add language related to college into their settlement agreements.

Kathy Noble, Start With Your Story Educational Consulting, Ann Arbor

Privileged: A Practical Primer on Privileges

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 4:10pm–5:00pm)

Asserting a privilege (e.g. medical, attorney-client, etc.) can be a powerful shield to prevent the discovery of information in a family law case. But the assertion may have drastic ramifications for your client. Take a deep dive into a variety of privileges encountered in family law cases, and learn the risks, benefits, and consequences associated with each.

Natalie Alane, Alane Family Law PLC, Lansing; Kyle J. Quinn, McShane & Bowie PLC, Grand Rapids

Bench and Bar Track

My First Year on the Bench or in the Referee Hearing Room: Guidance for Practitioners

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 11:00am–11:50am)

Imagine you're humming along as a family law practitioner and then, poof, you're suddenly ruling from the bench as a judge or referee. Viewing the law from the other side, what advice would you give practitioners now that you're a neutral decision maker rather than a zealous advocate? Panelists will "pull back the curtain" to share their best advice to help lawyers hone their techniques of persuasion to the family judges and referees in a way that will best represent your clients' interests.

Christopher J. Harrington, Chair-Elect, Family Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan, Oakland County Friend of the Court, Pontiac; Hulen R. Simpson, 3rd Circuit Court, Detroit; Hon. Carla G. Testani, 3rd Circuit Court, Detroit

Cannabis and Family Court

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 1:05pm–1:55pm)

What are the impacts of recreational and medical cannabis in abuse/neglect and family law matters? How are these issues coming up and how are courts handling these matters? Come to discuss the high points from the applicable statutes and recent caselaw developments with views from the practitioner's standpoint as well as the perspective from the bench.

Shon A. Cook, Shon Cook Law PC, Whitehall; Hon. Jacob James Cunningham, 6th Circuit Court, Pontiac

Confusing Confidentiality: Confidential Records, Sealed Records, and Protected Records

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 2:05pm–2:55pm)

What is confidential and what is not? What can be filed, what can't be filed, and what shouldn't be filed? Learn the differences between filing under seal and filing subject to a protective order, plus how recent court rule changes have dealt with the confusion. Does MCR 3.229 change the procedures to be followed?

Mathew Kobliska, Debrincat Padgett Kobliska & Zick, Farmington Hills; Hon. Jon A. Van Allsburg, 20th Circuit Court, Grand Haven

Threshold Hearings Point-Counterpoint

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 3:10pm–4:00pm)

Do the threshold standards have you confused? Learn when to use the varying threshold standards in Vodvarka, Shade, and Kaeb, and how to best utilize them for your clients' cases. Experts help you decipher which standard applies, address the burden of proof for each, and help you develop the facts in your pleadings based on the appropriate standard. We will discuss the who, what, when, where, and how of threshold decisions, and how they are being handled differently around the state.

Jenny L. McNeill, Muskegon County Friend of the Court, Muskegon; Erin Morrae Rothfuss Magley, 20th Circuit Court, Grand Haven; Liisa R. Speaker, Speaker Law Firm, Lansing

Assessing for Domestic Violence: Improve Legal Outcomes and Reduce Harm

(Thursday, November 18, 2021, 4:10pm–5:00pm)

Assessing every client for domestic violence and coercive controlling behaviors will help lawyers develop a trusting client relationship and build a strong case, while improving outcomes and reducing risk of harm. Learn why domestic violence assessments are a necessary step for lawyers, evaluators, and decision makers, and how domestic violence, once identified, impacts custody, parenting time, property, and support determinations.

Jade J. Edwards, Oakland County Friend of the Court, Pontiac; Rebecca E. Shiemke, Michigan Poverty Law Program, Ypsilanti

Financial Track

Tax Tips for Practitioners

(Friday, November 19, 2021, 10:10am–11:00am)

Returning for 2021, this segment never fails to both educate and entertain. Join our faculty as they present this year's roundup of the latest and greatest tax tips for lawyers who are NOT tax experts, including how COVID stimulus checks should be handled and important changes to the treatment of one-time capital gains. Learn how these easy-to-implement ideas can benefit your clients and your practice.
